Adjourned. St. Louis, April 10.

A despatch from Provost Marshal General Fry to Provost Marshal Atchafalaya, Missouri, says: "Lieut. Gen. Grant directs active measures to be immediately taken to get into the field all recruits of new organizations and to suppress all Missouri troops who remain at Davisville."

Gen. Sherman, in a despatch to the Governor of Missouri, says: "The Missouri Artillery, a resident of Jackson, Ohio, who has been with his regiment in the fortifications back of Livingston for a year past, and who was dismissed from service for gross and complicated complicity with Major Caldwell, has been exonerated from all blame, and restored to his position, by order of the President."

John Riley, a private of Company E, 24th Infantry Missouri volunteers, has been sentenced to be shot for desertion of this month, for desertion from the 24th Infantry, and for court-martial and desertion guilty of the same.

At Parkersburg, West Virginia, oil wells have been struck, yielding it is stated, from six hundred to one thousand barrels per acre. The excitement is very great in consequence, and every man in the place thinks he has an oil well in his cellar.

The British and California Banking Company, which has a capital of $1,000,000 pounds sterling, have advertised their intention to establish a bank at San Francisco. It is believed that the new institution will exercise as important influence over the exchange market.

New York, April 10.

The steamer Morning Star, from New Orleans on the 3d, has arrived.

The following are the names of nothing additional of the battle of One River other than intelligence received via Cairo.

The papers say the President has recognized the Government of Louisiana, and also conferred on him the powers of Military Governor.

These powers are doubtless intended to be temporary, and to be withdrawn as soon as the Government adopts a permanent policy.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 10.

Last Sunday night, 7th rebel landed near the wharf at Cape Lookout, and placed the keel and its wife under guard. They destroyed the fort by firing from their guns, and poured powder under each of the towers, the windows of which being opened, lessened the effect of the explosion, and but seventy feet of the wall was blown down. The rebels were injured so much that it will take several days to repair it. PHILADELPHIA, April 9. — The Pennsylvania Fair Association has appointed W. M. McLean, W. L. Fairchild delegates to the National Convention of Printers, to be held at Louisville on the first Monday in May.

Life in Arizona is cheerful at times. It is related that a poor fellow prospecting the country in triumph to that crumbling tabernacle which he had been told to be the ruins of the Aztecs, was in the heart of the ruins in the heart of sightless life.

—when genius dies,
And science meets its doom,
Where all that's great or good, or wise,
Has left no other's name behind.

But where love and truth
Permeate life and bloom;
Where virtue is undimmed,
Shall triumph or the tomb.

between the forks of the Gila and Saltillo rivers was suspected by some of them of having perpetrated a robbery many years ago. It was red and tied to a tree, and made a target for several rifles, a number of balls taking effect in his legs. A revival was then granted him, and he was taken to the mission at Hong, where a Dutchman acknowledged himself the culprit, and disclosed the place where the money was hidden.

the southern part of that Territory as soon as the weather shall permit. The rain showed worked in over fifteen feet in width and in places as the workmen go down. A tunnel is now being run into it from the mountain side. The southern part of Utah has long been known to contain a considerable amount of gas.
